

Patti M. Walsh, Author

www.PattiMWalsh.com

GHOST GIRL, her debut novel, is an upper-middle ghost story based on Celtic mythology.

Publication Date: October 25, 2022, by Atmosphere Press

Patti publishes Come to Think of It, a monthly newsletter; blogs at What the Cats Are Reading; and posts on LinkedIn.

Background

- B.S., English Education, Western Connecticut State University
- M.S., Industrial Arts Education, Central Connecticut State University
- English Teacher, Grades 7-12, Danbury and New Milford, CT
- Education Director, Sylvan Learning Center, Wallingford, CT
- Associate Director, Project ACCESS for students with disabilities, University of New Orleans
- Education consultant, Vids for Grids, funded by U.S. Department of Energy
- Co-author animation curriculum, Flip It, Spin It, Watch It Move®
- Editor in Chief, National Electrical Manufacturers Association, Arlington, VA

Publications

- Ghost Girl, middle-grade novel published by Atmosphere Press (October 25, 2022)
- Florida Writers Association
- Florida Weekly
- Stroll
- Swinging Through Childhood
- Old Mountain Press
- Electroindustry Magazine and other trade publications
- Success.com
- Post-Secondary Education Issues for Transition-Age Adolescents with Disabilities and/or Special Health Care Needs (Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center)

Professional Memberships

- Florida Writers Association
- Gulf Coast Writers Association
- Pelican Pens, Fort Myers, Florida
- Thomas Jefferson Writers' Group, Fairfax, Virginia

Awards

- Florida Writers Association, 2021
- Hermes Creative Awards, 2019, 2018, 2016